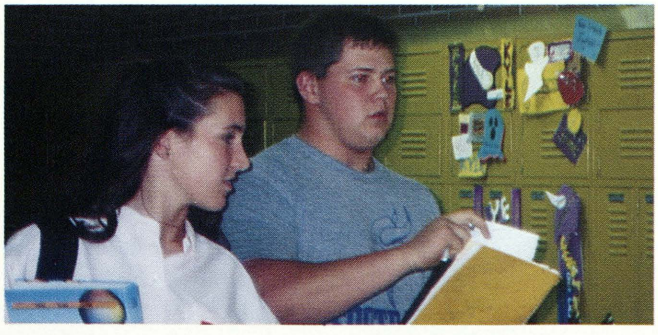
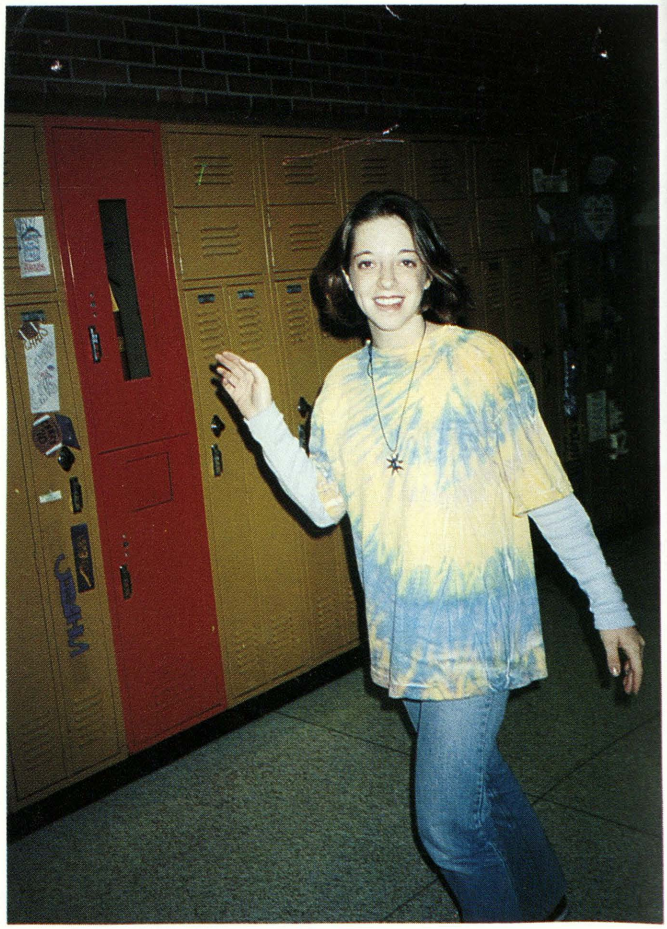
ALWAYS ON THE GO

Chauffeuring the Vikings mascot, Jeremy Tuggle and Brent Cox take part in the Homecoming parade.

Roaming the halls, Dan Cuthbertson shows friend, Mike Bauer, around during a wrestling meet.



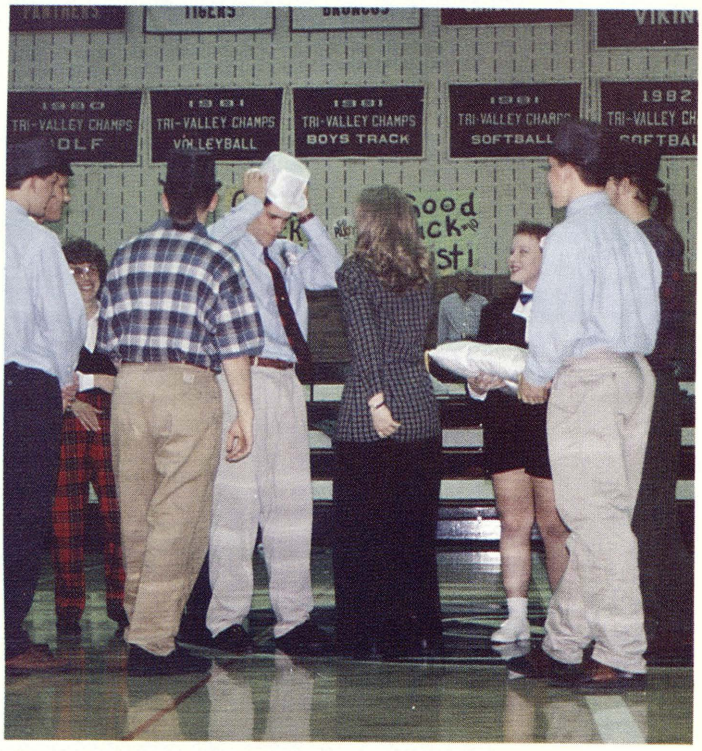
Racing against the bell, Allison Leach and Alan Curtis hurry to class.



With a friendly wave and a smile, Erica Rumpel finds her way back to class.

Coming Home King Candidates: Jermey Burmeister, Mike Ayers, Dan Cuthbertson, Jeff Schrems, Pat Haller, Joe O'Toole and Jason Dupuis(missing).

Waiting patiently, candidate Jermey Burmeister listens for the winner to be announced.



Crowning royalty, Melissa Krause presents Dan Cuthbertson with the kings white top hat.

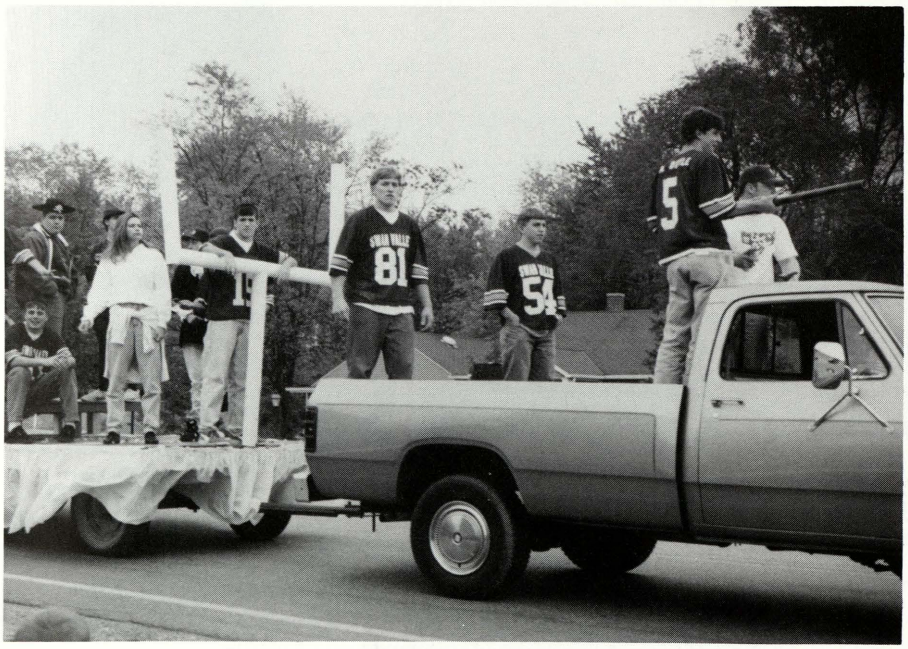
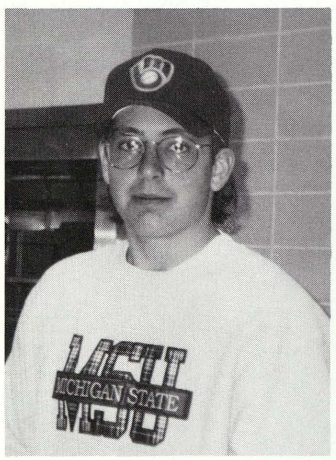
CLASS FLOWER:
White Rose
CLASS SONG
"The River"

CLASS MOTTO:
"Remember Yesterday, Dream of Tomorrow, Live For Today"

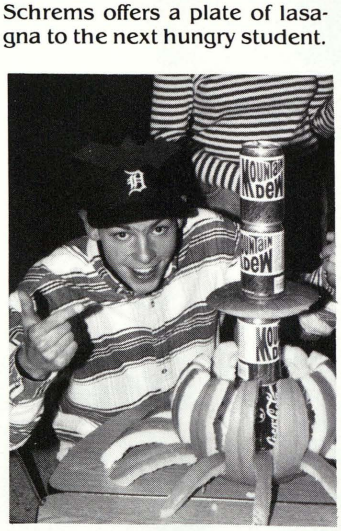


Left: The 1994 Senior float. Above: Interesting facial expressions by Ann Porras and Jim St. Onge.

Grin and bear it! Jamey Thom takes a break from her busy day to show her cheerful side.

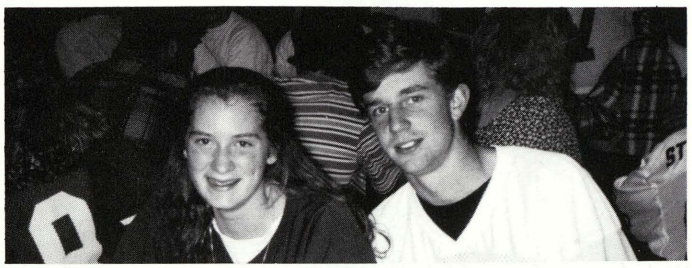


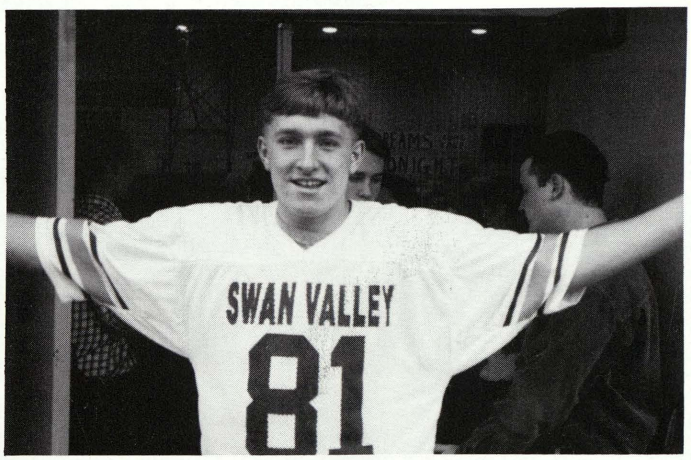
Service with a smile? Jeff Schrems offers a plate of lasagna to the next hungry student.



An out-of-the-ordinary pumpkin won first prize for Eric Gilmore at the Halloween dance.

"My number one fan!" Cindy Moore supports Mat Doyle during football season.

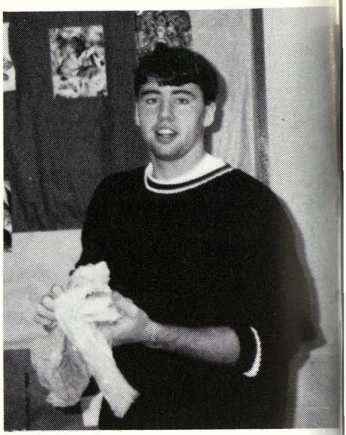




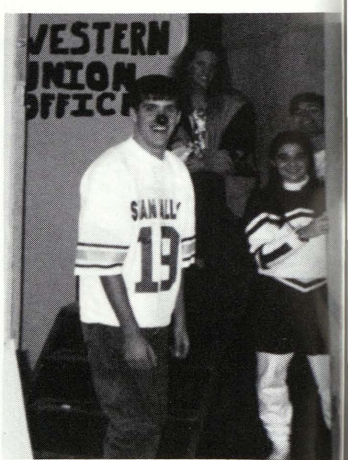
I love football THIS much! John Doyle shows his spirit for the game in Marquette following the pep rally.

SENIOR SMILES

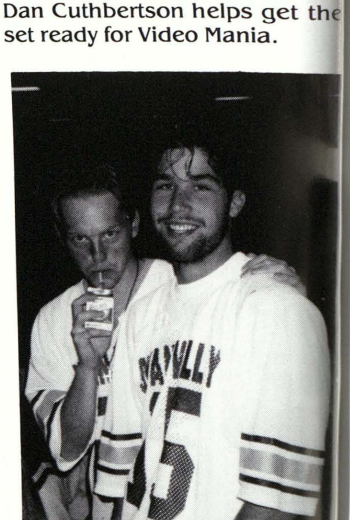
Group hug! Niki Neagle, Azurely Hartzfeld, Erica Rumple, and Holly Sumera take time out from dancing to share a hug.



Cleaning up after a busy day in art, Mike Starkweather is caught in the act.

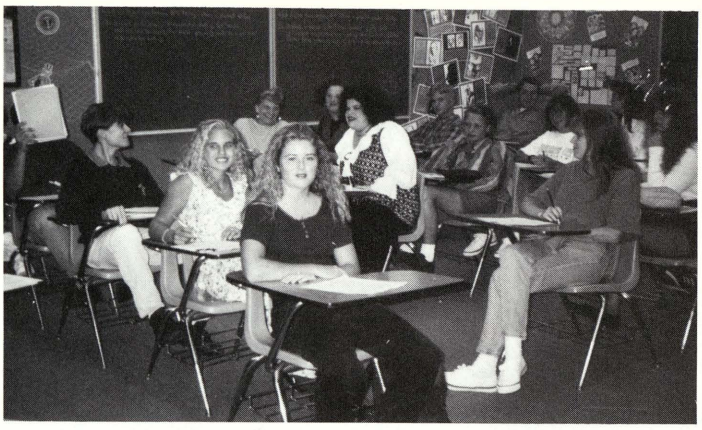


Clowning around in drama, Dan Cuthbertson helps get the set ready for Video Mania.

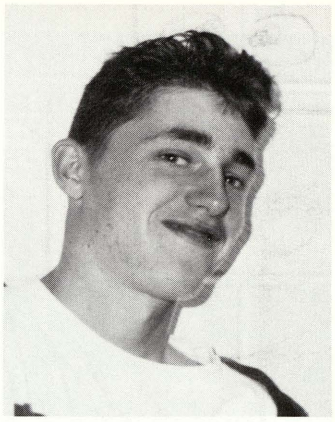


Up to no good? Gary Williams and Jason Dupuis give a sly smile at lunch.

A Kodak moment! Jason McNeil and Chris Pence share a hug after a pep assembly.



Just an ordinary day in government class, as the seniors prepare for the lesson.



Smart aleck grin? Brian Call shows a sense of humor in art class.

"Let me down! Chad Toth is passed around the bleachers by the Varsity team during a J.V. game.

Left: Trend boy Joe Fisher struts his stuff during some free time.

Right: PEACE! Krissy Wiegand shows her spirit on Decades Day.

Another day, another dollar Mindy Sinkler and Jennifer Knight wrap up another day.

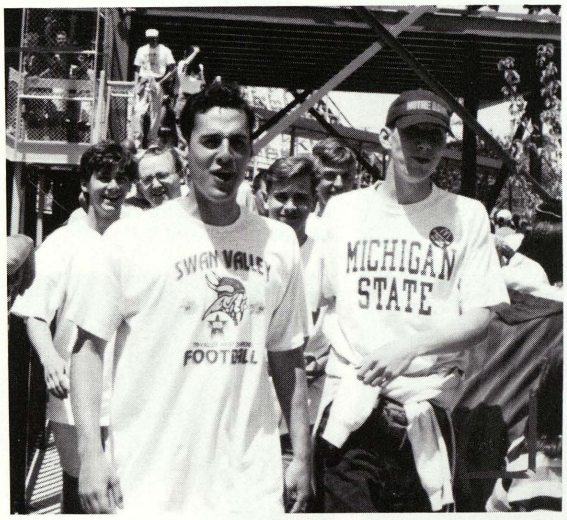
Ta-da! Presenting ... Heather Simstad, huge grin and all.

"Are you talking to me?" Brent Cox's surprised expression captures the moment.

Time out from dancing means time to pose and grin for Kris Grillo and Liz Wolinski.

SENIOR TRIP

One Last Time Together



As Alan Curtis and Bruce Ott flex Holly Sumera says Hi.

These guys sure do look excited after just getting off the new ride at Cedar Point, The Raptor.

Looks like Angie Sander, Azurely Hartzfeld, and Jamey Thom, had a fun ride on The Raptor and are ready to go again.

Audrey Adams and Michelle Cottrell play ping pong while they are at the hotel.

The senior trip was absolutely great! Two buses filled with excited seniors and unenthused chaperones left at 6 a.m. June 1, 1994. A stop for breakfast at a crowded McDonald's on the way woke up some sleepy seniors. Finally, the buses arrived at Cedar Point! The Raptor was the biggest attraction where some people waited in line for an hour and a half, while the wait for others was only ten minutes. After Cedar Point, the Sawmill was the next stop with swimming, dinner, the giftatory, and a last dance together. At 12:30 a.m. the buses left for Saginaw, with many crying seniors, and arrived here around 4 a.m. Though tired, the seniors headed to their cars to go home and get to bed.

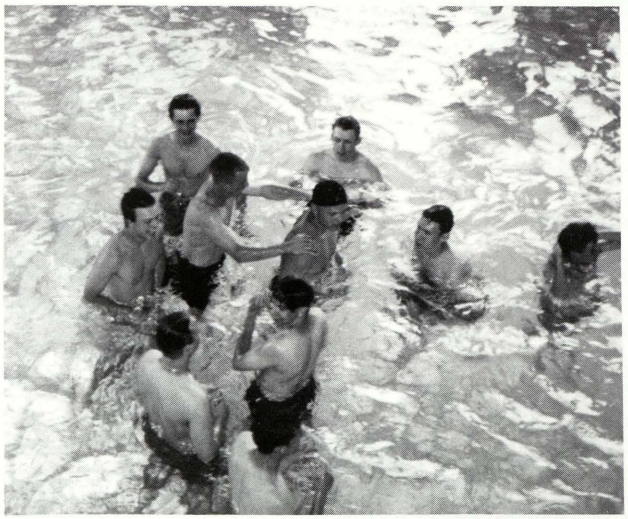
These girls look excited to ride The Raptor.

These seniors pose for one last picture together while they are at Cedar Point.

Below: Brandon Colpean, Melissa Rudizinski, Angie Sander, Jamie Kolton, Joe O'Toole, Tobias Burgel, and Matt Pumford are waiting for their dinner.

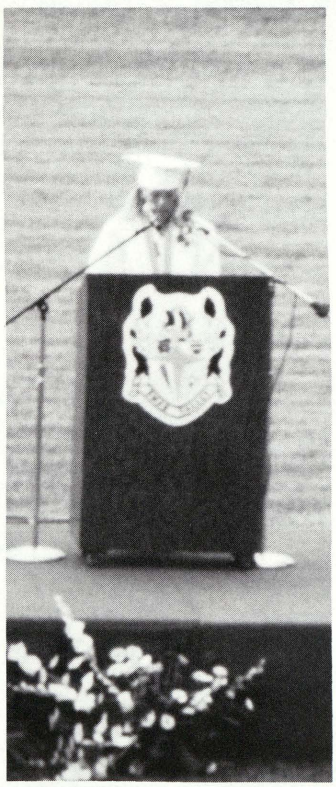


A few of the senior guys do some bonding in the pool just a week before graduation.

YES! Mike Ayres shakes hands after receiving his diploma.

I DID IT MOM Chris Ballosh walks out to graduate with pride!

GOOD-BYE Lindsay Stevens gives her valedictory speech on a beautifully COLD June evening.



Above: Melissa Rudzinski sadly gives her salutatory speech. Right: Outstanding students Alan Curtis and Lindsay Stevens stand by Melissa Rudzinski while waiting for their awards.

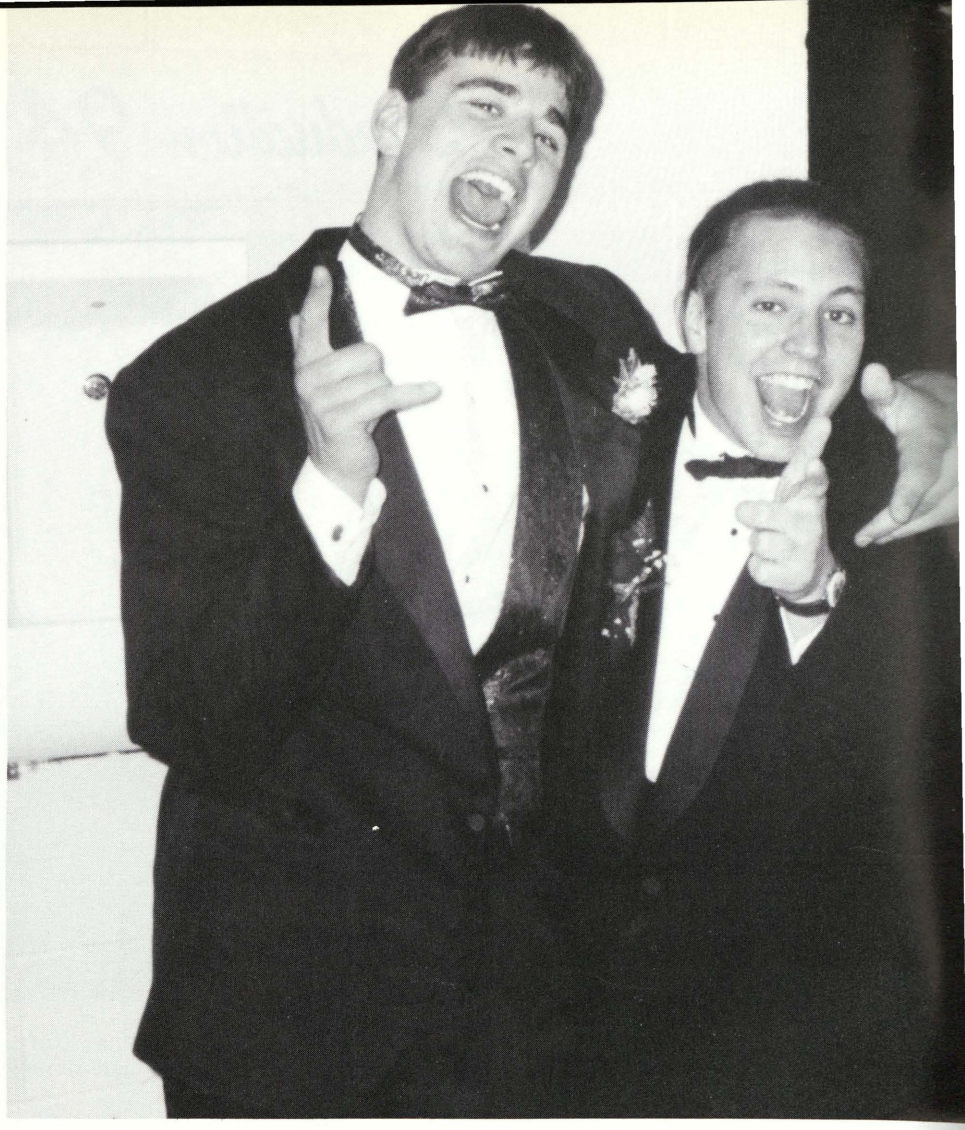
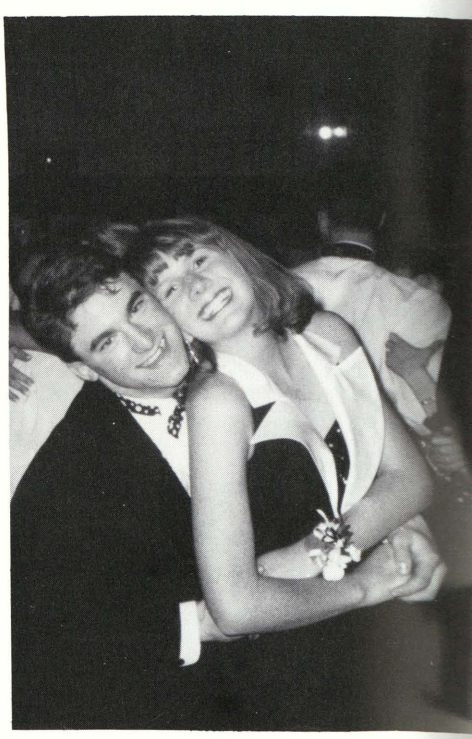
Junior-Senior Prom

Matt Pumford, "It was great for the one time I could experience it."

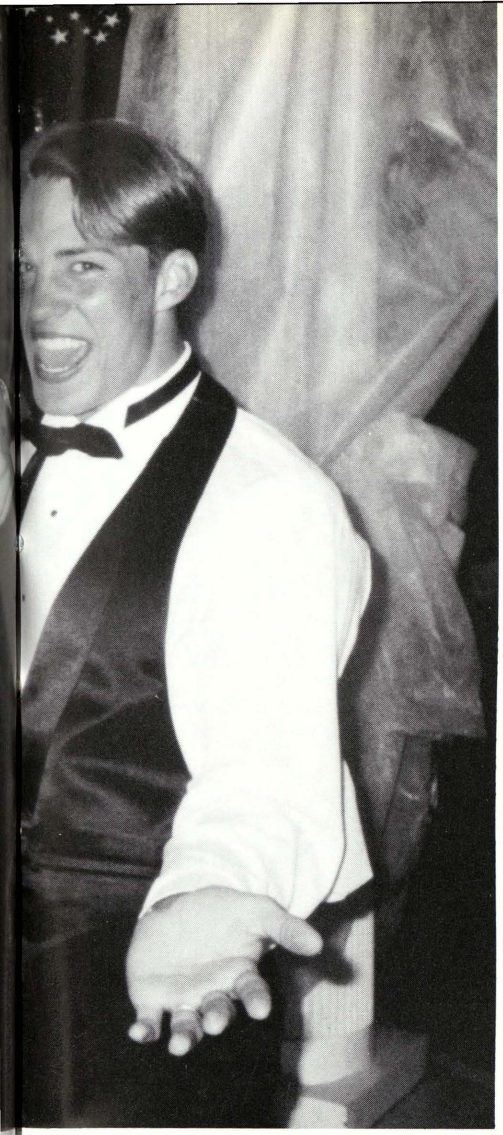
Cindy Moore, "Prom is great especially when you're with your friends."

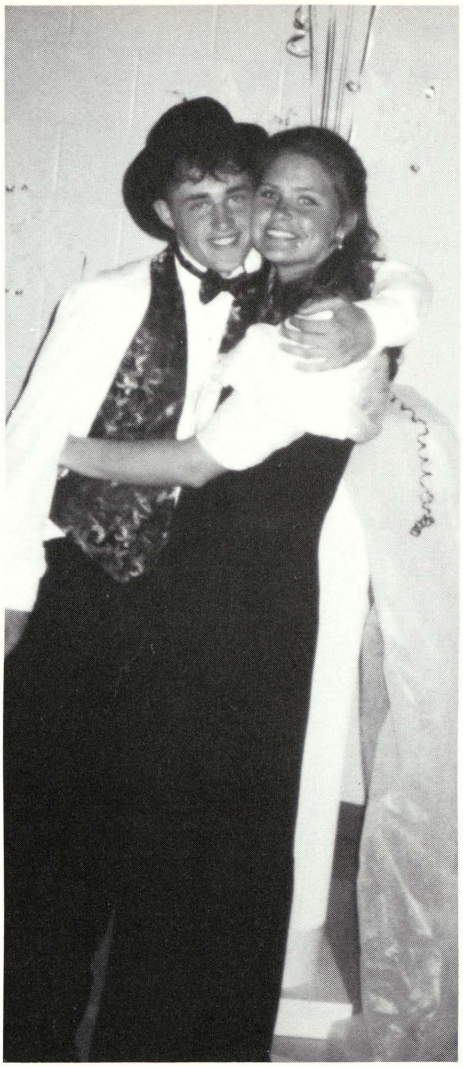


Mistletoe?! Tammy Moore grins with a kiss from her date as Lisa Martindale sneaks up next to her.



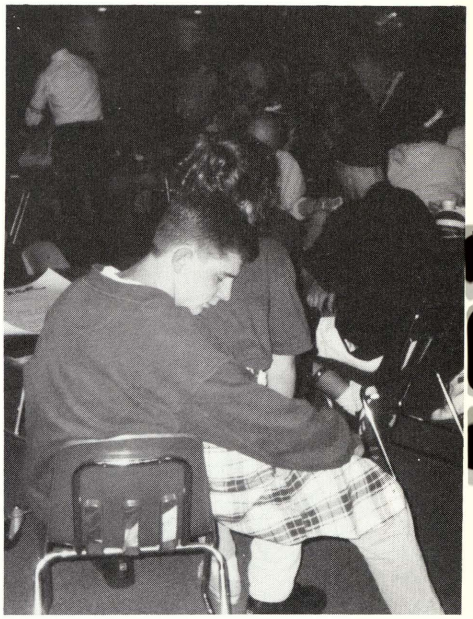
"Shiny Happy People", Jeff Shemanski and Lindsay Stevens say "cheese" during prom.





Brian Call and Jamey Thom, together make the "perfect couple" for prom night.

Mat Doyle takes some time out from the after-prom party to get a small nap.

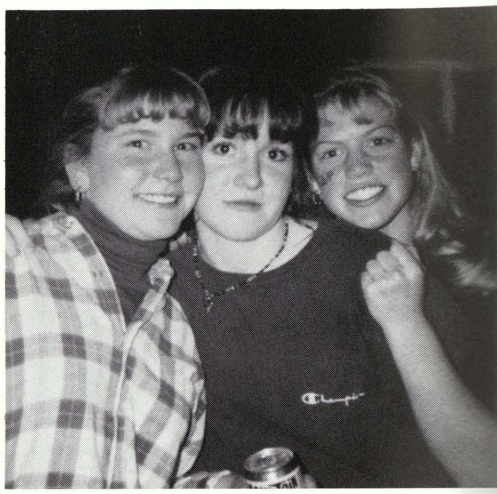


With sparkling dresses and flashing smiles, Azurely Hartzfeld, Nicki Neagle, and Holly Sumera step out of their dancing shoes to pose for a picture.

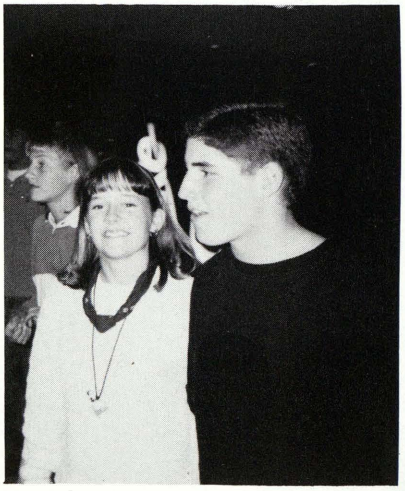
A final toast to a great evening!

Freshmen in Action

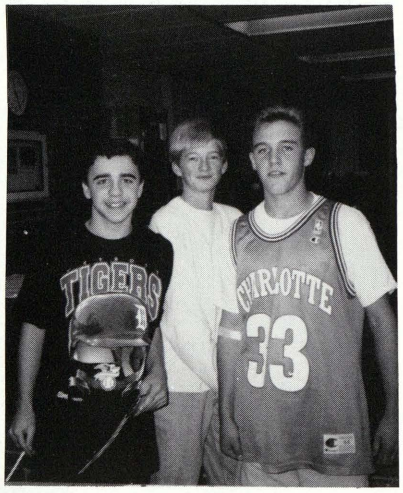
Say Cheese! Kelly Rhodes, Karen Stamann, Sara Evans, Amanda Meyer, Nissa Cirillo, and Cory Steiner pose happily for the camera.



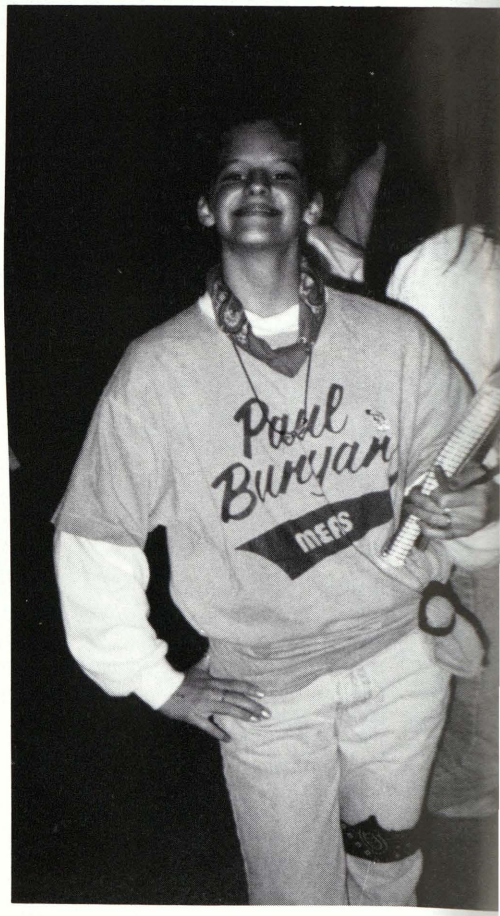
Get a little closer! Katrina Hepinstall, Lisa Cu bey, and Sandy Nurnberg aren't the least shy.



Following the crowd, Lindsay Ruppel and Matt Kleinebreil end their lunch with a smile.



Three's not a crowd, or so Chris Sander, Kevin Ecarius, and Justin Comerford must think as they visit the office.



Style with a smile! Beth Pahssen shows h spirit on Decade Day.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

The Junior Varsity football team celebrated an excellent season with a record of 6-2-1. The team was coached this year by Mr. Hoewe, student teacher Mr. Manning, and Mr. Cooper. When asked what he thought the most important aspect of a team was, Mr. Hoewe said it's "whether or not they play as one unit." The team started the season off slowly, with a loss to Birch Run and, at Freeland, the game was called on account of lighting. The lighting sparked a five game winning streak, that ended in a loss to Hemlock. They finished on a good note with a win over Caro.

Cross Country

Swan Valley Finishes 2nd Overall in League.

This year the cross country team did an exceptional job! Steve Short earned the titles of Country Champs, West Division Champs, Regional Runner-up, and State Qualifier. Tobias Burgel, Steve Martin, Christina Brandel, and Shannon Creed proudly qualified for the All-West Division team.

The cross-country team was the first team in the West Division to beat Bullock Creek, a rare feat to accomplish. The team beat the league champs in the final jamboree, making their overall team record 16 and 2.

Congratulation are in order to the cross-country on an incredible 1993-94 season.

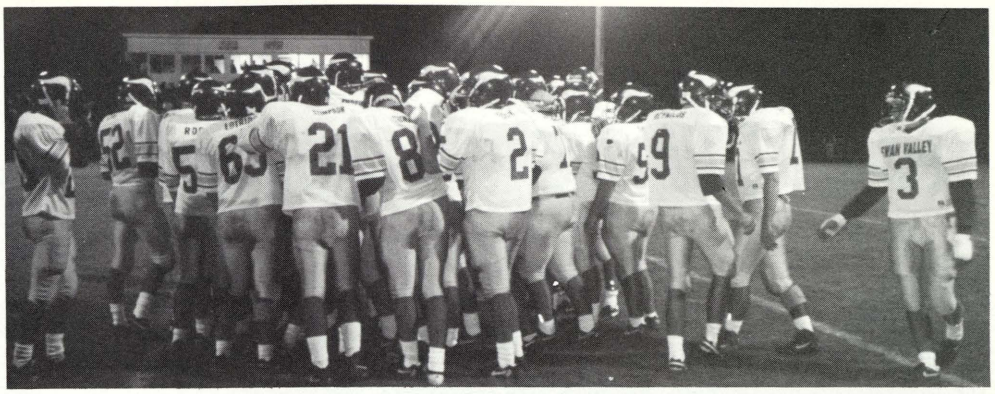
Are you sure we'll all fit in there?

Now, what do you want?



Team! Team! Win!

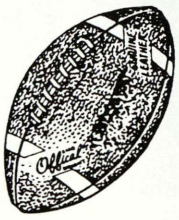
Congrats Mike Ayres and Chad Toth Dream team 93.



Victory! Yup, that's what our 1993-94 Varsity Football team was yelling after their 8-2 season, only losing to Caro and Kingsford. Swan Valley has gone to the play offs three years in a row. The past season was the one to remember.

Team spirit and unity gave the Varsity the great potential to do the best that they did.

Steve Ochoa exclaimed "This year's team got along great, we all worked together as a team to accomplish the best. I think Mr. Adams, Mr. Hoewe and Mr. Koons should be thanked for coaching as well as they did." Steve also added "I think this has been the best Varsity team Swan Valley has ever had."

John Doyle added "As soon as everybody commited to the team, we accomplished a lot more." Written by Heidi Wesener

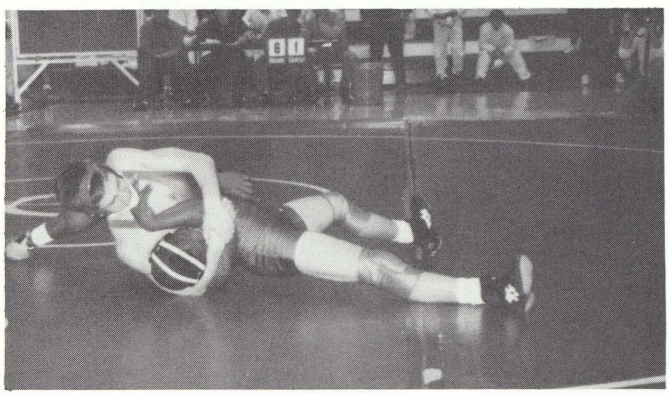
WRESTLING: Continuing the winning way!!



Senior Matt Doyle is close to pinning his opponent and helping the team win the Swan Valley Invitational.

"As a team we did well this year," said senior Chris Burke. "We could have done a lot better, if it wasn't for some injuries to some important wrestlers. The newer wrestlers stepped up a lot this season to fill the void. Over all, we all did well." He said that the "key" victory this season was a win over Birch Run at their own invitational.

Thoughts on Basketball:

"It was a season of high hopes and big expectations. We did win the conference, but not outright. I wish I was healthy so I could have done more, but I'm glad I played." (Dan Cuthbertson)

"It was a good year. We became more of a team as the season progressed." (Andy Young)

"We played as a team. We won our second straight championship, which made it an exciting year." (Jim Miller)

"Basketball gave me a chance to talk to and be with people that I normally would not see. Without basketball, I would never have known Matt Pumford." (Joe O'Toole)

"It was awesome to play Buena Vista. We played 'sweet' against them." (Matt Pumford)

"It was the year of riding the pine, but I had a good time watching the games with my friends." (Kyle Rock)

"We learned how to play well when we had to. The season ended on a good note." (John Doyle)

Warming up for a big game against Bullock Creek, Dean Wenzel practices his jump shot.

"We ended up fighting through quite a bit of adversity. We came from behind many times. Some highlights were the 7th conference championship in a pour. Seven Seniors were on the team this year, which will make next years season challenging and exciting."

Congratulations, Mr. Kennelly on your 400th coaching victory.

Swan Valley's 1994 JV Softball team was the team that could but didn't always. They were champions at the Swan Valley Invitational and runners-up at the Hemlock Invitational. The ladies were hard workers and got the job done. Congratulations and keep up the good work.

When Marica Filary was asked about the team, she had this to say, "I had a lot of fun with the team this year and hope that the other girls did too." The sophomores on the team were Kelly Metzger (left field), Amy Call (center field), Lindsay Greif (left field), Tammi Sedgwick, Sarah Matuzak (right field), and Marcia Filary (first base). We'd like to wish the freshman on the team good luck next year.

Mr. Adams was very proud of his lady Vikes. He thought "they were a very young team that just got better and better as the season progressed. They hit the ball very well, and played better defense near the end of the season." The Vikes ended the season with 19 wins and 12 losses.

OUTSTANDING STUDENTS

What does it take to earn the title of outstanding student?

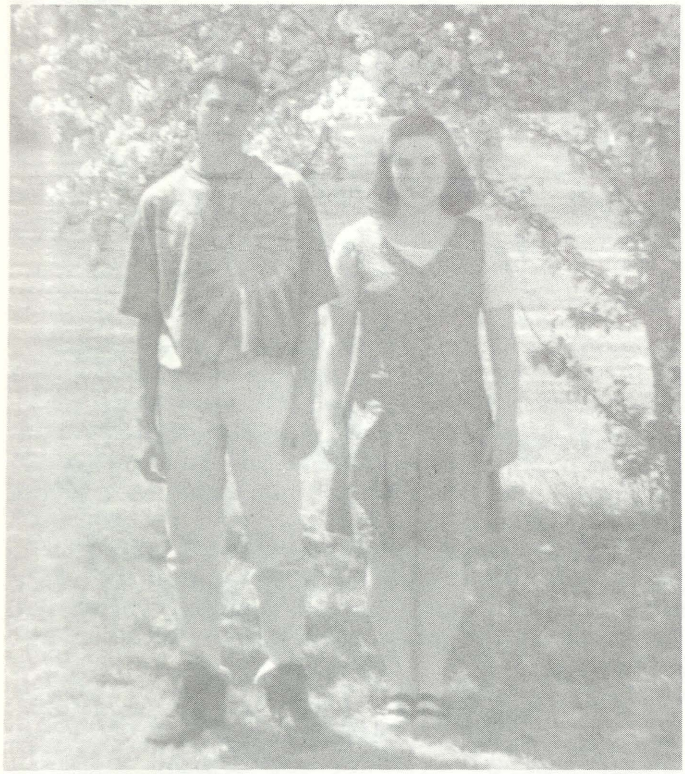
Junior Steve Martin explains the requirements involved, "A lot of time and hard work and dedication."

Steve Martin was chosen as this year's outstanding Junior male.

He offers the following advice to his fellow students, "Always set high goals and never give up on them."

The outstanding senior male and female were not revealed until graduation night.

Juniors Steve Martin and Heather Matula.



Freshmen Peter Damore and Kara Stamaris.

Sophomores Paul Blower and Amy Call.

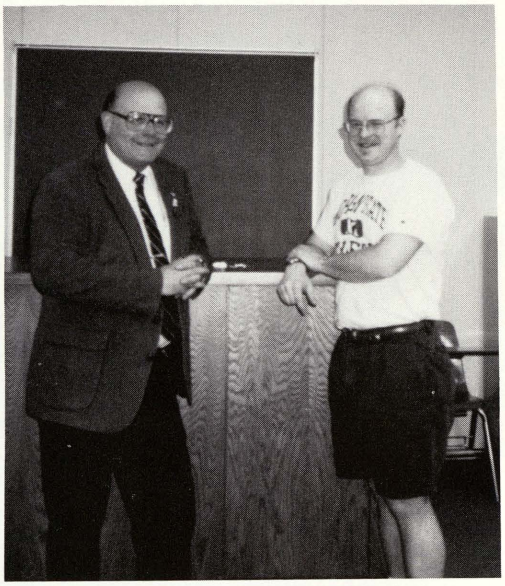
Journalism Club

Members: (Back L to R) Justin Comerford and Russ Hoppe. (Front L to R) Kelly Stajdl, Jennifer Sting, and Missy Pilkington.



Advisors: Principal Mr. Cuthbertson and Saginaw News Reporter David Osborn.

The Viking Shield Is Here!

Have you caught a glimpse of the Viking Shield? The Viking Shield is Swan Valley's first newspaper for nearly 10 years.

The enthusiasm and creativity of sophomores Justin Comerford, Russ Hoppe, Kelly Stajdl, Jennifer Sting, and Junior Missy Pilkington helped produce The Viking Shield. They worked under the assistance of principal Mr. Cuthbertson and Saginaw News Reporter David Osborn.

The Viking Shield was distributed on May 13, 1994 to the student body. The Journalism Club hopes to continue putting together a newspaper next year as well. Some ideas for next years Viking Shield includes letters to the editor and student polls.

On the go!

An elementary school float rides in the parade for Homecoming.

This year's Student Council was composed of President Melissa Krause; Vice-President Kyle Rock; Secretary Jeff Shemanski; Treasurer Brian Giersbach; Advisor Mrs. Debozy, and between 100-150 volunteer members.

The Student Council has five permanent committees: Decorating, Ecology, Fudraising, Public Relations, and Spirit. Each year, the Student Council sponsors various activities such as Homecoming, Coming Home, Powder Puff, and the Pride Parade. This year they did something new. Student Council gave a $100 academic scholarship to a deserving senior during graduation.

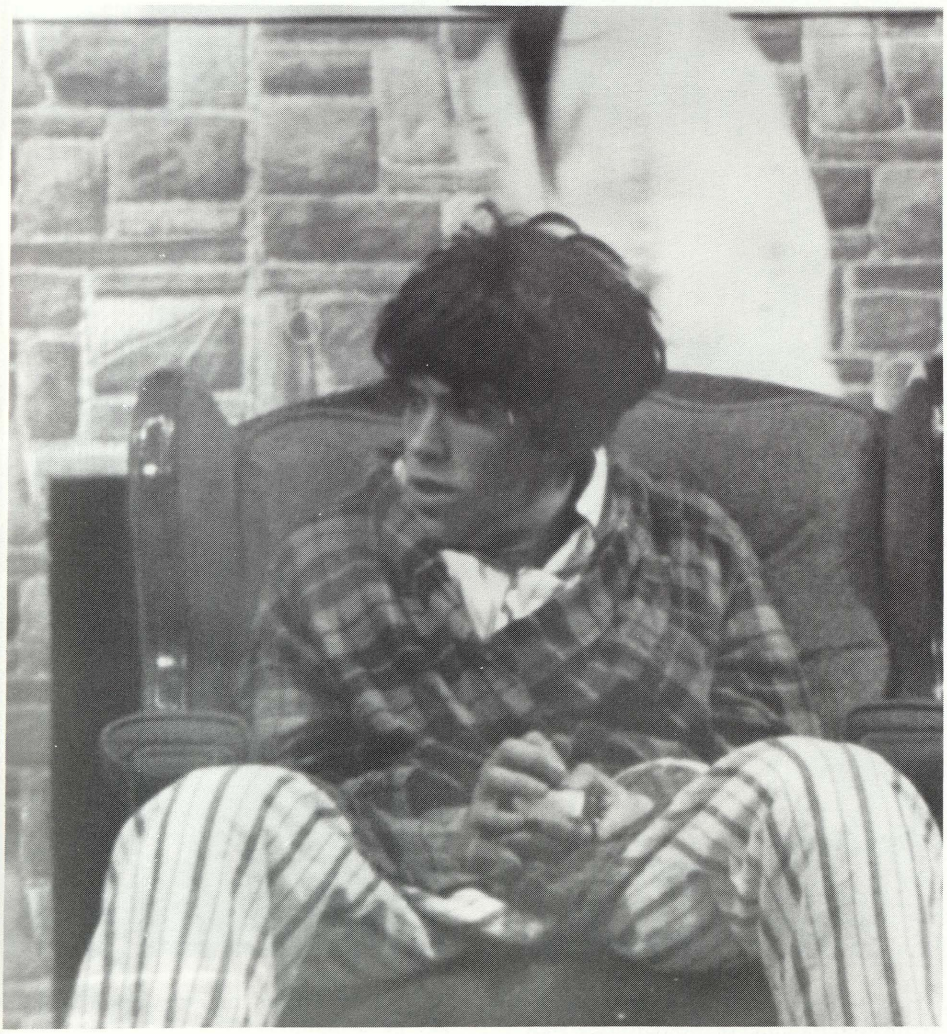
and . . . ACTION

During the year the drama class performed two plays. This year they chose "Video Mania" which they performed on Feb. 3 and "When the Nerds Bit Beverly Hills" which they performed on May 5.

When Melissa Krause, a third year student of drama, was asked about drama she said, "There's nothing like the sound of applause, I really liked the class, we were all really close."



Ann Porras plays the "Bad Guy" during "Video Mania."

Dan Cuthbertson hilariously plays his part during "Video Mania."

Exchange Student

A chance to experience a new culture and get memories for life.

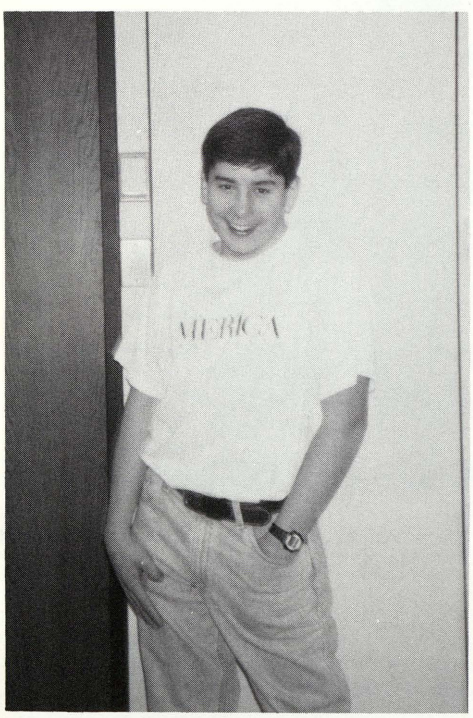
During the 93-94 school year Swan Valley H.S. hosted three exchange students from Europe: Tobias Burgel from Germany, Miguel Perez Gonalez from Spain, and Marta Rodin from Sweden.

All three of them miss certain kinds of food and of course family and friends from their countries. They say they will miss some food from America too and all the friends they made during the most exciting year of their lives.

Written by: Marta Rodin

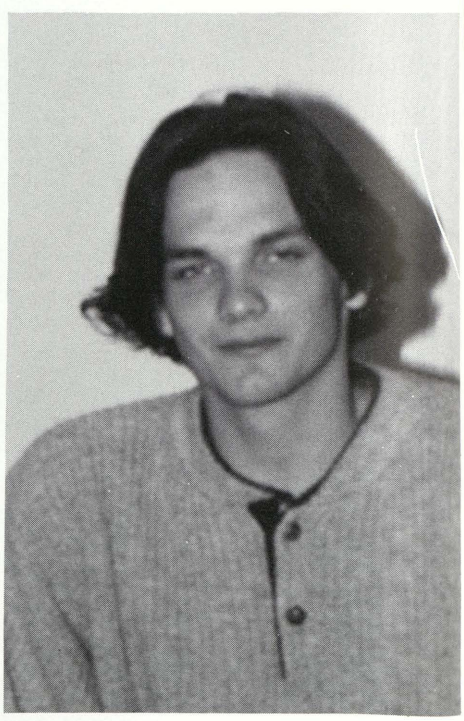
Miguel, Marta, and Tobias.

Espana, Sverige, and Deutschland.



During the year Miguel was a member of the wrestling and track teams, and was on the merit roll.

Marta an honor roll student and also a very dedicated member of the yearbook staff.



As a senior Tobias ran cross country in the fall, participated in track, and was an honor student this year.

Black History Month

Left: (l to r) Freshman Dyesheika Morris, sophomore Dory Ward, and freshmen Tynisha Gallardo with Denon Hampton.

For February in honor of Black History Month, the four students at the left set up a Black History display in the cafeteria showcase. The display included newspaper clippings and posters that recognized famous African Americans as well as African heritage. Also in the showcase was a model head of Martin Luther King Jr.

In memory of Mrs. Ellwanger, a former teacher at Swan Valley High School.

Mrs. Ellwanger (1945-1993) had only been teaching a year when a terminal illness took her life. She taught special education, math, and reading at Swan Valley Middle School. At Swan Valley High School, she instructed special education, literature, enrichment, and study skills. She was described by a friend as "lady like" and "beautiful on the inside". Her career in teaching was very special to her. She was very concerned about the welfare of her students. A dedicated woman who took pride in her work, Mrs. Ellwanger touched the lives of those who knew her.

Reaching The Limit

The Asgard Chapter of the National Honor Society inducted twenty-four new members this year. There were twenty second year students present also. The ceremony took place on January 24, 1994 for the students and their parents and/or guardians.

New member, Jody Call, played piano for the occasion. NHS president, Dave Barrett, lead with the pledge of allegiance and offered a welcome speech to the crowd. NHS advisor, Mrs. Burnside, explained the selection process in how members are chosen.

Recognition was given to the NHS officers as they each gave a speech on one of four qualities that made them a part of NHS. President, Dave Barrett, spoke on the importance of character. Vice-president, Melissa Krause, told of the significance of leadership. Secretary, Audrey Adams, shared her view on the importance of service. Treasurer, Tom Fox, explained the meaning of scholarship. These are the four qualifications every member of NHS has displayed at one time or another.

Becoming a member of NHS is a tough obstacle to achieve and once you're inducted it's only the beginning. The students must do community service projects and attend all group meetings. This induction ceremony is a night set aside to recognize the dedication and hard work these students have put into the organization.

Administration

Swan Valley's Administration team completed another hard working year addressing the needs of the school district.

Dr. Syrek finished his sixth year as superintendent of Swan Valley Schools continuing to guide us into the future.

The dedication of Mr. Slade showed through as he took the lead in many different areas this past year. As Community Education Director, Athletic Director, and Work Experience Coordinator, he put in a substantial amount of work. He managed the duties of Business Education as well.

Mrs. Perry took over the responsibilites of Adult Education this year from Mr. Slade. She was the bookkeeper for Latchkey and the Coordinator of Chapter One Projects that operated after school and during the summer.

Overall, we can feel proud knowing how hard the Administration tries to better the students' education in preparation for their future.

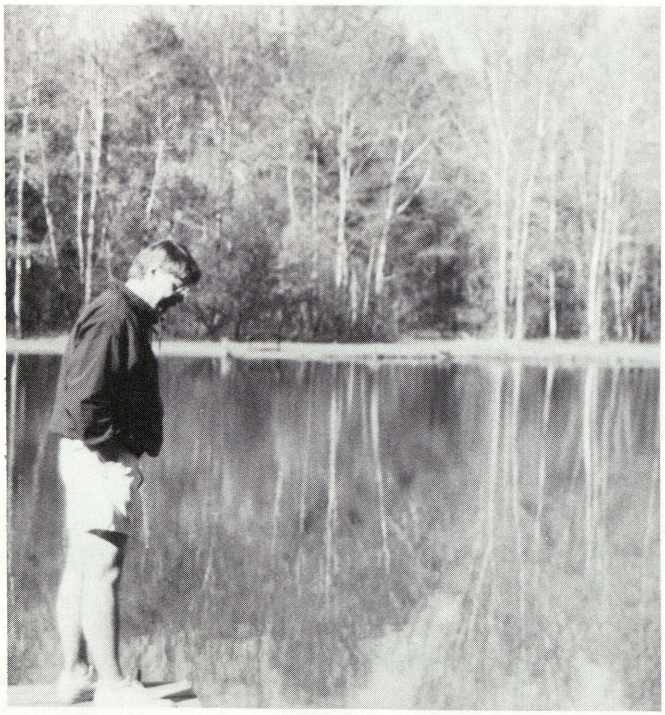
Beautification Day

Kris Grillo and Tricia Bennett are having a "cheesy" time in Roethke Park.

Azurley Hartzfeld and LeAnn Grief take time to smile for th camera.

Tom Fox is "getting dirty" while messing with the grill.



Mr. Bird: "I wonder if I will find out how cold this water is."

Finally time to sit down in the sun and drink a cold pop.

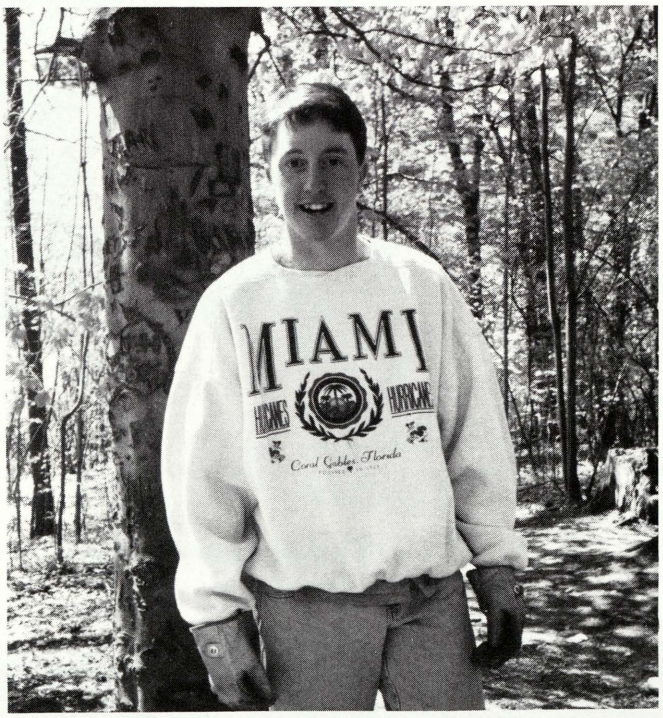
Erich Reid is wondering if he actually will have to do some work.

Mr. Adams finally found peace out in the woods.

Jeff Rood arising from the woodchips . . .

On Friday the thirteenth of May all the seniors at Swan Valley HS went out to beautify Shields. In contrast to some years it was a beautiful sunny day. No one minded walking around and picking up litter. Some other things the seniors accomplished were planting flowers, raking up leaves, moving woodchips and general sprucing up.

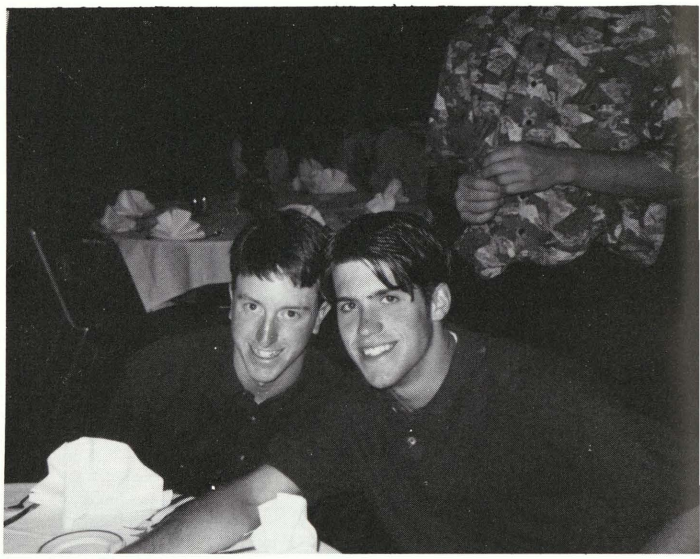
The girls are picking up litter around the school-building.



Brandon Colpean is smiling, proud of his work.

The Seniors Take A Day Off!

Jennifer Knight survived The Raptor at Cedar Point.



We want service! Brandon Colpean and Dan Cuthbertson at the Sa mill.

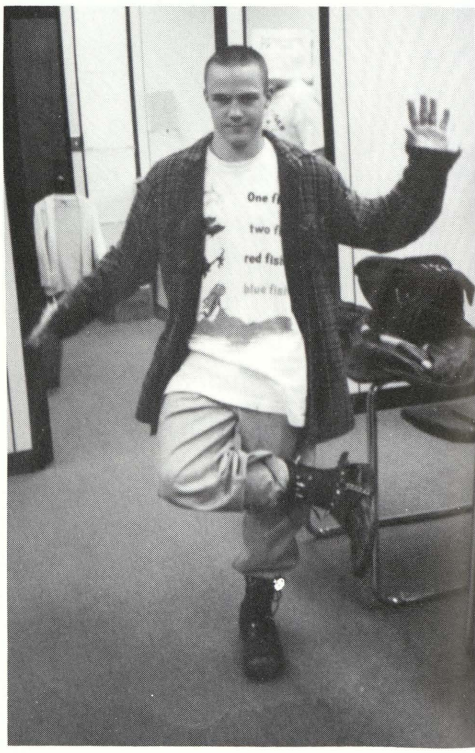
Nicole Toft and Melissa Rudzinski getting a tan while waiting in line for a ride at Cedar Point.



Joe Fisher gives a Final goodbye to his hig school years.

David Barrett and Friends can't wait to ride C dar Point's new attraction, The Raptor.
